

Connecticut Association of Diversity and Equity Professionals (CADEP)

Mary C. Rawlins Scholarship Winners September 24, 2010

Stacy Thomas graduated number one in a class of 134, from Somers High School. She will attend Providence College majoring in Biochemistry. Her goal is to earn a bachelors degree in Biochemistry, a graduate degree in pharmacology and become a pharmacologist.

Taylor Amato of West Hartford graduated from Kingswood-Oxford in West Hartford (school does not report G.P.A. or class rank), and will major in Political Science with the goal of becoming a lawyer, and ultimately a judge.

Faith Crittenden of Windsor graduated number four in a class of 86, from Metropolitan Learning Center in Bloomfield. She will attend UCONN, majoring in Chemistry. Her goal is to become a physician specializing in neonatology.