CTAAAP dba:
Connecticut Association of Diversity and Equity Professionals

About us:

Established in 1979, the Association provides its membership with authoritative and up-to-date information on affirmative action, discrimination, human rights and workforce diversity.

We provide members with a variety of professional development programs including full and half-day seminars as well as our annual conference in September covering the spectrum of affirmative action topics, new legislation and national trends.

The Association represents over 100 Affirmative Action professionals, EEO Specialists, Diversity Specialists, and Human Resources professionals throughout the State of Connecticut. The Association also promotes continuing education by offering an annual scholarship in honor of Mary C. Rawlins to a Connecticut student.

The elected officers serve a two-year term. Membership business meetings are held the third week of every other month, beginning in November.
